GFOA's Annual Governmental GAAP Update is regarded as one of the most practical ways for busy public-sector accountants and auditors to stay current with the latest developments in accounting.

This four-hour recording from the November 3, 2016, broadcast offers an unsurpassed opportunity to obtain a comprehensive yet comprehensible overview of the past year's developments affecting accounting and financial reporting for state and local governments. The purchased recording can be downloaded from GFOA's website.

This year's training included:

- Additional authoritative guidance on pensions and other postemployment benefits (OPEB);
- Proposed final guidance on leases;
- New standard for money-market type investment pools and participating governments;
- Proposed final guidance on the use of fiduciary funds;
- Authoritative guidance on split-interest agreements;
- New standard that expands the criteria for blending component units;
- Proposed final guidance on capital asset retirement obligations;
- Progress on project to reexamine the governmental financial reporting model;
- Forthcoming proposal on accounting for debt extinguishments that use existing resources;
- Recent GASB implementation guidance;
- Other ongoing GASB projects (GASB Technical Plan); and
- Common financial reporting deficiencies.

The 21st Annual Governmental GAAP Update was presented by Stephen J. Gauthier, Director of GFOA's Technical Services Center, and Steven A. Solomon, Deputy Director. Gauthier is the author of Governmental Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting (GAAFR or "Blue Book") and numerous other GFOA publications.
